

MORÓN FRONTERA EL PASADO DOMINGO, XXI MEDIA MARATÓN LA CAL Y EL OLIVO

Triunfo para Driss Fennasi

JUSTO RODRÍGUEZ FD MORÓN DE LA FRONTERA

El marroquí afincado en Granada Driss Fennasi, con un tiempo de 1 hora, 10 minutos y 9 segundos, se apuntó el título en la vigésima primera edición de la Media Maratón La Cal y el Olivo, que se disputó el pasado domingo día 15 entre las localidades de Arahal y Morón de la Frontera. Con este triunfo, Fennasi repetía la victoria que ya consiguiera en 2002, en aquella ocasión invirtiendo 1 hora, 11 minutos y 41 segundos. Muy cerca del vencedor cruzó la línea de meta el representante del Oripipo nazareno Antonio Ladrón de Guevara (1h.10:13).

En mujeres la gaditana de San Fernando Elena Aparicio (veterana A) se impuso en la general tras cubrir los 21 kilómetros y 97 metros de que constaba la prueba en 1 hora, 24 minutos y 36 segundos. El mejor local de Arahal fue Manuel Suárez, del C.D. Ohmio, séptimo (1h.13:09), mientras Miguel Ángel Pérez, del C.A. Arunci (35º arrastrando una inoportuna lesión, con un tiempo de 1h.20:12) fue el mejor de Morón.

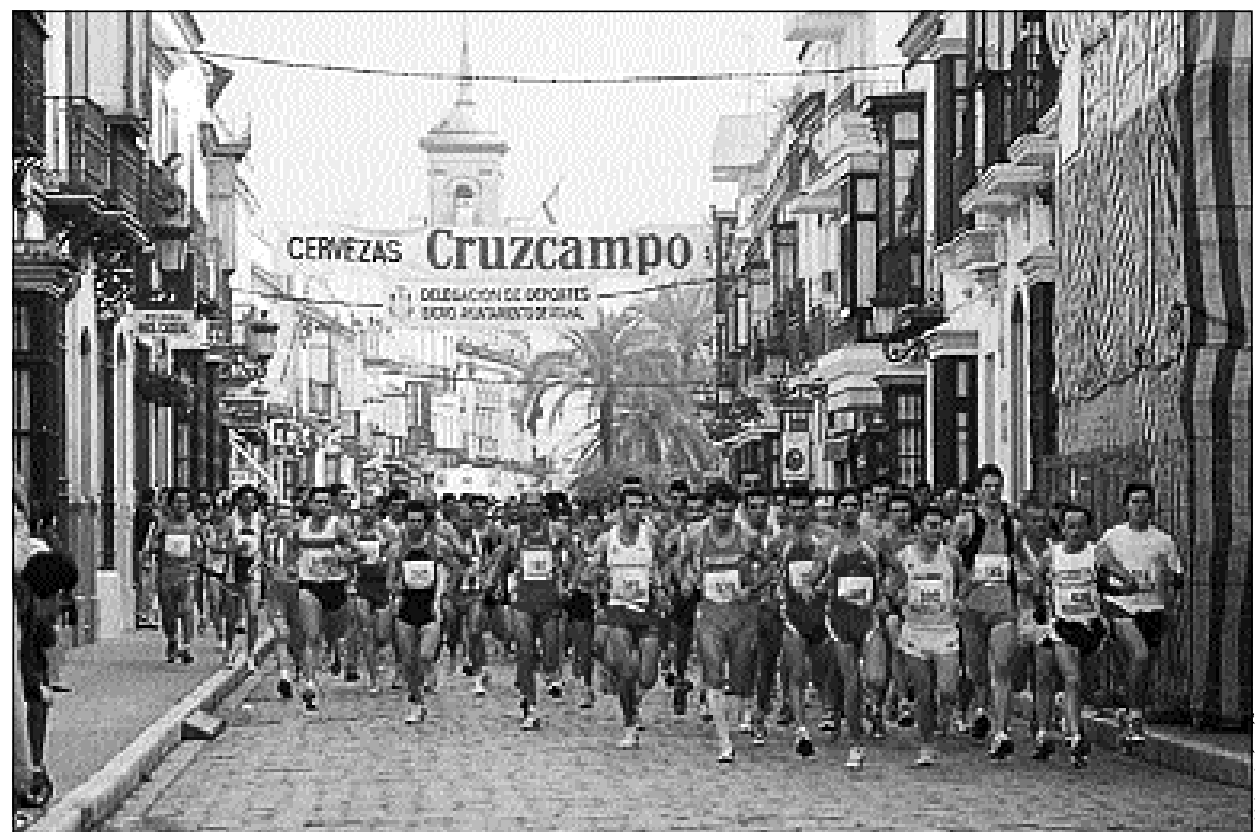

Al margen de los resultados, la jornada se desarrolló según lo previsto, cumpliéndose todas las expectativas de la organización tanto en lo referente a participación como a seguimiento de los aficionados. No en vano, además de los muchos espectadores que como cada año animaron a los corredores en las zonas urbanas de Arahal y Morón, también hubo numeroso público en la carretera comarcal que une ambas localidades durante toda la prueba. En definitiva, una exitosa jornada deportiva en el desarrollo de una de las pruebas más consolidadas del calendario provincial, en la que cada año se dan cita deportistas del más alto nivel.
